

Property Fact Sheet

Our work will involve:

Purchases	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1 Reviewing title information, searches (if any) and replies to enquiries supplied by the seller’s solicitor and raising any further relevant enquiries; 2 Carrying out any searches required; 3 Reporting to you on the main aspects of the transaction including any issues arising out of the title for the Property, any search results and any relevant information supplied by the seller’s solicitor 4 Proceeding to exchange of contracts; 5 Completing the purchase of the Property; 6 Acting for your Lender in relation to the purchase including providing a certificate of title and registering the Bank’s legal charge. We would always recommend that you ensure you have a valid mortgage offer before committing to the purchase; 7 Registering your purchase and any legal charge at the Land Registry and filing an SDLT (“Stamp Duty Land Tax”) Return with HMRC; and 8 Dealing with the post completion requirements of your Lender including sending any appropriate documents to the Lender.
Auction Purchases (Post-Exchange)	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Dealing with post exchange matters (unless instructed we will not be reviewing the auction pack and our checks will be limited to those required to ensure that your purchase can be registered). 2. Preparing an SDLT Return for your approval and submitting the approved return to HMRC on your behalf. 3. Carrying out registration at the Land Registry.
Sales	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1 Reviewing title information and preparing a draft contract; 2 Providing title information, the contract and replies to the purchaser’s enquiries;

Before sending monies to us please call our switchboard to verify the account details provided by us in any correspondence.

Timescales

The progression of any matter is often dependent upon the speed at which the other parties involved are able to proceed. However, most matters are completed within a time frame of three weeks to two months. We will endeavour to complete your matter as soon as possible and if you have any specific instructions relating to the timing of completion, please let us know at your earliest convenience.

Keeping You Informed

We will inform you in writing of key developments as they occur, but if you would like an update in the meantime, please do not hesitate to contact us. We endeavour to return your telephone calls within twenty-four hours and reply to your correspondence within five working days.

Residential Property Matters – CQS Accreditation

We are accredited by the Conveyancing Quality Scheme (CQS). The CQS provides a recognized quality standard for residential conveyancing practices. Membership achievement establishes a level of credibility for member firms with stakeholders (regulators, lenders, insurers and consumers). This is based upon the integrity of the senior responsible officer and other key conveyancing staff, the firm's adherence to good practice management standards and adherence to prudent and efficient conveyancing procedures through the scheme protocol.

Future Instructions and Costs

Should you choose to instruct us again in the future, we will be able to proceed without on each matter confirming in writing to you all our processes, policies, client care information, indemnity insurance details, invoicing and other general information as contained in this Property Factsheet and our Terms of Business, on the condition that you instruct us to proceed on this basis. However, on each new instruction we will still confirm the details of the work we will carry out on your behalf, our fees, and any specific instructions from you.

If you do not wish to proceed on the basis set out above you should notify prior to instructing us on any new instruction.

Our latest Terms of Business and Anti Money Laundering Policy are available on our website - <http://www.lpropertylawyers.co.uk> in Legal and Regulatory Information.
