

Training Contracts

2022 / 2023

LPL is a fast growing, award winning conveyancing service company that rewards talent, drive and commitment in its employees.

At LPL, our people are our most important asset and the key to our success.

We believe that our people do their best work when they feel supported and valued.

We are committed to building a supportive culture for people who want to enjoy their work, fulfil their career potential and excel at what they do.

We strive to support all our employees in developing their careers and helping them reach their full potential and offer a range of training opportunities to progress within the firm.

Register your interest now for 2022 / 2023 training contracts!

Register Now!

2022

The deadline for applications is 2nd January 2022, with a selection process in February and final assessment in March.

Commencement April 1st 2022 – Applications must be received by 2nd January 2022.

2023

The deadline for applications is 2nd January 2023, with a selection process in February and final assessment in March.

Commencement April 1st 2023 – Applications must be received by 2nd January 2023.

We are seeking individuals with excellent verbal and written communication who can demonstrate team working skills, tenacity, high attention to details, organisation and enthusiasm.

Please note that our training contracts are non-rotational and are usually over a period of 18 months.

Want to find out more? Email

HR@lpropertylawyers.co.uk

